Dear Editor JPPIPA Prof. Aris Doyan, M.Si., Ph.D,

We wrote to submit our script for consideration for publication in the Journal of Research in Science Education (JPPIPA) with the title Development of Makassar City's Service Model and Transportation for Goods and Passengers.

The vision scientists, researchers, and lecturers who read our publication are likely to find lawyers to be highly appealing because our journals utilize concepts and models in transportation problem-solving.

We created this paper entirely on our own dime; we have never recommended a copy in another journal. The script and the outcomes have received our approval.

We appreciate you reading our script and considering it for review. We value your time and anticipate hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Kamran Aksa
