Title of your paper: Food and Beverage Services Business Continuity in the City of Makassar, Indonesia

Corresponding Author's Email Address: abdul.karim@universitasbosowa.ac.id

Author(s): Chahyono, Abdul Karim, Muhammad Azis, Rusmin Nuryadin

Keywords: busines F & B service; entrepreneurial behavior; business continuity; creativity; Innovation; MSMEs

Abstract: The highest inflation occurred in Makassar at 4.78% with a consumer price index of 115.79. The highest inflation occurred in the transportation group, followed by food, beverages, and tobacco, which further affected the continuity of MSMEs F & B services. MSMEs F & B service is one of the strategic businesses in the economy and has always been a favorite in trade and Makassar city is at the node of more efficient distribution services, so sustainability needs to be considered. This research aims to analyze (1) indicators of creativity, and innovation that form entrepreneurial behavior in supporting the continuity of MSMEs F & B service and (2) the impact of creativity, innovation, and entrepreneurial behavior on the continuity of MSMEs F & B service. This research uses a sequential explanatory design approach by combining quantitative and qualitative research methods. Data was obtained through observation, in-depth interviews, surveys, and documentation which was then analyzed using structural equation modeling. Research result; Creativity, innovation, and entrepreneurial behavior positively impact the continuity of MSMEs F & B service. Entrepreneurial behavior moderates the continuity of MSMEs' F & B service through commitment competency and opportunity competency. Continuity of MSMEs F & B service in the city of Makassar only lasts 56%, backed up by innovative entrepreneurial behavior through process and product innovation. This research recommends that through government policy support; increasing the continuity of MSMEs F & B services through strengthening the creativity and innovation of business actors so that it will become an important driver for the creation of reliable entrepreneurial behavior in the City of Makassar, Indonesia.
